

OPPORTUNITY ZONES & YOUR INFLUENCE

NOVEMBER 16-17
SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

Speaker Biography

Daniel Galindo

Managing Director of Allivate Impact Capital and Senior Vice President and Director of Community Development and Strategic Initiatives at Woodforest National Bank

As Managing Director of Allivate Impact Capital and Senior Vice President and Director of Community Development and Strategic Initiatives at Woodforest National Bank, Daniel Galindo leads impact investing and community development strategies across Allivate's funds and Woodforest's 17-state footprint. During his tenure at Woodforest, he has deployed and managed more than $1 billion in community development capital.

With more than 20 years of experience in banking, community and economic development, regulatory affairs, public policy, and impact investing. Daniel oversees Woodforest's Community Development, Minority Depository Institution, and Impact Investing strategy teams. His work spans community development lending and investment, CDFIs, private equity, Opportunity Zone funds, and other capital structures.

Daniel chairs Centrant Community Capital and serves on the boards of the United States Hispanic Chamber of Commerce Education Fund, Hogar Hispano, and CollectiveX. He also serves on the advisory board of Impact Shares Affordable Housing MBS ETF (OWNS). His honors include ICBA's and the San Antonio Business Journal's 40 Under 40 awards and the San Antonio Hispanic Chamber of Commerce's Advocate of the Year. He holds a finance degree from Texas A&M University and an Executive MBA in Banking and Financial Institutions.